

EXERCISES for Lesson XX IV

Drill C. Translate. [nouns all 5th declension]

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1. to/for many good things _____
multis et bonis rebus | 5. without days _____ sine diebus |
| 2. (by) faith alone _____ sola fide | 6. without faith _____ sine fide |
| 3. of faces _____ facierum | 7. your face _____ facies tua |
| 4. without hope _____ sine spe | 8. of new things _____ rerum novarum |

Exercises A. Translate.

- Deus res bonas et multas parat. _____
God prepares many good things.
- Christiani fidem et spem habent. _____
Christians have faith and hope.
- Miles in acie longa pugnabat. _____
The soldier was fighting in the long battle line.
- Puella faciem novam habet. _____
The girl has a new face.

Exercise B. Translate.

- My face warns the student. _____ Facies mea discipulum monet.
- The cavalry is coming into the battle line. _____
Equitatus in aciem venit.
- God gives hope. _____ Deus spem dat.
- The days are long. _____ Dies sunt longi.

Derivatives. Use each derivative in a sentence.

- fidelity _____
- facial _____
- despair _____
- meridian _____