

THIRD FORM ERRATA - UPDATED 04/2017

Student Text

Lesson 1

- First/Second Form Verb Review: Add free as a definition of libero and surpass as a definition of súpero.

Lesson 2

- First/Second Form Verb Review: Add limit as a definition of fínio.

Lesson 3

- New Vocabulary: Change the derivative coerce to cogent. (Coerce comes from coercēre.)
- 3rd/4th Conjugation Imperatives: Tolle et lege should be Tolle, lege in this lesson and throughout the book.

Lesson 5

- Word Study ♦ Grammar ♦ Syntax: In the 2nd and 3rd bullet points, glóriam (glory) is a word students have not learned. You may want to substitute victóriam (victory) instead.

Lesson 7

- Last Bullet Point: Christe eléison should be removed as it is Greek.

Lesson 9

- Last Bullet Point: The Latin example Fortuna fortes adjuvat should be Fortes fortuna juvat. The former is not wrong per se, but the latter is a Latin Saying from First Form Latin and thus more familiar to students.

Lesson 13

- New Vocabulary Chart: Both centum (100, Roman numeral C) and mille (1,000; Roman numeral M) should be included.

Lesson 16

- Vocabulary: The definition of tempestas should be thunderstorm.

Lesson 17

Unit III Review

- Vocabulary: The definition of tempestas should be thunderstorm.

Lesson 21

- Vocabulary: Add ne (not, used with subjunctive verbs).

Lesson 24

- Latin Saying Notes: References to arrest should more accurately refer to detention.

Lesson 25

- Vocabulary: Add ne (lest, so that ... not).

Lesson 26

- Vocabulary: Remove articulate as a derivative of cursum.
- Latin Saying Notes: Officiis (last word) should be Officiis.

Unit IV Review

- Vocabulary: Add ne (not with subjunctive verbs; lest, so that ... not).

Lesson 27

- Last Bullet Point: If your student finds this bullet point confusing, use the following, simplified version instead: "Not every adjective has a comparative and superlative. Of the adjectives you have learned so far, almus, defessus, ferus, finítimus, nefárius, and sacer only have a positive form. The Naughty Nine and Possessive Pronoun Adjectives also do not have comparative and superlative forms."

Lesson 28

- Vocabulary: Remove civility as a derivative of tristis.

Lesson 30

- Latin Saying Notes for Ánnuít Coeptis (on p. 95): In the first sentence, change a phrase from to adapted from.

Unit V Review

- Regular Comparison of Adjectives and Adverbs Chart: Add a macron to latē and latíssimē (2nd row) and to gravíssimē (last row).
- Irregular Comparison of Adjectives Chart: The Latin for many ("Positive" column, 3rd-to-last row) should be multi -ae -a, and the Latin for very many ("Superlative" column, same row as many) should be plúrimi -ae -a.

THIRD FORM ERRATA - UPDATED 04/2017

Conversational Latin Appendix

- Classroom Latin: Change Est-ne confusus? to Esne confusus? (N.B. Confusus is used when speaking to a male and confusa to a female.)
