2. If you had to divide this chapter into two different parts, where would you divide it, and why?

ENRICHMENT

1. Scholars debate the historicity of King Arthur. It is not implausible that a warlord led a successful uprising against barbarian settlers around 500 A.D. Perhaps that man was Arthur. There is no evidence that disproves such a thesis. Think of what evidence would convince you that the legends of Arthur are true or false. Write a paragraph explaining what such evidence would look like.

2. On a separate piece of paper, write a summary of Arthur and Merlin's relationship. Why is it significant?
