 - snow* (CP, p. 83 – ow)
- Write these four words in a word bank on the board: snow, plow, down, blow. Next write these incomplete sentences on the board:
_____ out your candles!
In winter, we play in the _____.
The farmer will _____ the ground.
The seesaw goes up and _____.
- Ask the students to read the sentences and fill in the correct word, noting the two sounds that ow can make.

Let's Talk.

Little Bear wanted to go outside and play in the snow. Have you ever played in the snow? What are some things you can do in the snow? Name some things you can't do when it is snowy.

Let's Learn.

A sentence is a group of words that tells a complete thought. All sentences begin with an uppercase, or capital, letter. All sentences end with a punctuation mark. One kind of punctuation mark is called a period. A period looks like a dot. Write these two sentences correctly, using capitals and periods.

1. the snow is cold and white

The snow is cold and white.

2. a bear has a fur coat

A bear has a fur coat.
