Comprehension Questions

1. In the beginning of the story, what must the King do to break the enchantment of the Princess whom he loves? Does he succeed? _____ He must tread on the Princess's cat's tail. Yes, he is able to step on the tail and break the enchantment. _____
2. Who appears "as suddenly as a flash of lightning" and snatches the Dear Little Princess away just as Prince Hyacinth is about to kiss her hand? _____ the enchanter _____
3. What important person does Prince Hyacinth meet on his journey to find the Dear Little Princess? _____ He meets the old woman, who is really a fairy. _____

4. Why does she turn out to be so important? Because she begins, through several comments, to bring the truth to Hyacinth that his nose is unusually long.

5. What happens when Prince Hyacinth says, "Well, it must be admitted that my nose is too long!"? The crystal prison flies into a thousand pieces, and there is the old Fairy and the Dear Little Princess. And now Prince Hyacinth's nose is the right size!

Quotations

"Now, say if you are not very much obliged to me. Much good it was for me to talk to you about your nose! You would never have found out how extraordinary it was if it hadn't hindered you from doing what you wanted to. You see how self-love keeps us from knowing our own defects of mind and body. Our reason tries in vain to show them to us; we refuse to see them till we find them in the way of our interests."

1. Who said this? the old Fairy

Discussion Questions

1. For most of the story, Prince Hyacinth thought his nose was the right size, and everyone else's nose was too small. Whom do you think is most to blame for Prince Hyacinth's faulty view of his nose?
2. Why do you suppose the Dear Little Princess was snatched away just as Prince Hyacinth was about to kiss her hand?

Enrichment

1. From the quotation above, can you find the two sentences that teach an important life lesson? With good penmanship, copy the two sentences below.

"You see how self-love keeps us from knowing our own defects of mind and body. Our reason tries in vain to show them to us; we refuse to see them till we find them in the way of our interests."
