Grammar – The First Conjugation

amo (I love) amámus (we love)
amas (you love) amátis (you love)
amat (he, she, it loves) amant (they love)

The First Conjugation

Conjugations are verb groups.
A verb shows action or state of being.
When we conjugate a verb, we change it based on who or what is doing the action and when that action occurs.

Walk: I walk. I am walking.
Yesterday you walked.
Our friends will walk tomorrow.
