Reading Notes

Crusades
military campaigns fought between Muslims and Christians to determine who will gain control of the Holy Land

King Richard I
rightful king of England who is often away fighting crusades

Prince John
Richard I’s evil brother who rules in the place of Richard when he is away at war

Sheriff of Nottingham
the cruel sheriff appointed by Prince John who carries out John’s merciless and unjust orders

bishop
a member of the church clergy who has authority over a group of local churches

abbot
a man who is the head of a monastery

yeoman
a middle-class man who freely owns and farms land

palmer
a religious pilgrim who carries a palm as a token of his visit to the Holy Land

serf
a servant in the lowest feudal class who works under a lord in return for protection and a plot of land to farm

Worman
Robin’s steward who betrays him to Prince John

William Scathlock
Will Scarlet; Robin’s loyal follower who is second in command

---

Vocabulary
Write the meaning of each bold word or phrase.

1. his coffers must be full of gold! _______________________________________________________

2. Even I his Steward do not know that. ____________________________________________________

3. see the arrow has transfixed his heart ___________________________________________________

---

Comprehension Questions
Answer the following in complete sentences.

1. Why did Much the Miller kill one of the king’s deer? _______________________________________
   ___________________________________________________________________________________
   ___________________________________________________________________________________
   ___________________________________________________________________________________

2. Who kills Much? ______________________________________________________________________
3. How does Robert Fitzooth’s steward betray him? Describe the plan he suggests for Prince John to capture Robin Hood.

_______________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________

4. What does Will Scarlet think is strange about the arrow used to kill Much? ________________

_______________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________

5. What happens to Much the Miller’s son? _________________________________________________

_______________________________________________________________________________________

Quotations

“Let me come with you and serve your noble master too. I know I am but twelve years old—but sorrow brings us quickly to manhood …”

Who said this? ____________________________________________________________
To whom? ________________________________
Who is the noble master that the speaker wants to serve? ________________________
What is the sorrow that is spoken of? ____________________________

Discussion Questions

1. How did Prince John become the ruler of England, even though Richard was the rightful king? What type of ruler is John?

2. How does Prince John make money? Discuss at least three ways.

3. What is John’s real reason for creating such a scene with Much the Miller in the forest?

Enrichment

1. Assign students to play the roles of the Sheriff, the Sheriff’s men, Much the Miller, Prince John, Worman, the serfs, Much’s son, and Will Scarlet. Act out the story of Much the Miller and the rescuing of Much’s son.

2. Rewrite the story as if you were Much the Miller’s son.